A PROPHECY.

Over forty years ago an old German hermit published in a Bayarian paper a curious prophecy. In it he foretold the Austro-Russian the Franco-Russian wars, the death of Pope Pius, and the Turo-Greeian debate at srms. He said that Germany would have three Emperors in one year before the end of the century, and indicated the death of two United States Presidents by assessination, and a' these things have come to

In the same article he said that when the twentieth century opens great scismic disturbances will take place, which will cause the subversion of New York city and the western half of the city of Havans; Cuba is to bresk in two, while Florida and Lower California will suffer total extinction. The earth-quakes will raze buildings to the ground in almost every city on the continent, and millions of lives and billions of dollars worth of property

There is to be a change in economic conditions of almost every civilized naction. He fortells the growth of a dem-ocratic spirit in England which will re-sult in a revolution that will overthrow he present form of government and make the country a republic. He says the last ruler of England will be the best the country ever bad, and the first president of the nation will be one of the royal family.

The nermit prophesied that Russis, France and Italy would form an aliance and euter into war with Turkey. This war is to be the outgrowth of Turkeyish persecution of Christian subjects. The tripple aliance will conquer the domains of the "Sick Man of the East." At the expiration of the war complications will arise that will plunge Italy and France into wer with Russia. The re-Itartificially digests the food and aids sult will be that the two countries will Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. Then a conflict will arise between the ultra Catholics of the south of Ireland and the ultra Protestants of the north; in which the southerners will be victori ous. A kingdom will be established. and it is predicted that the reign of the first potentate will become historic for

The prophet paints a dark picture for the United States. He says that at the close of the century a feeling of unrest will seize the people. The feeling will be the outgrowth of unequal sociey economic conditions. He predicts that the 25th President will be the last executive nead of the United States.

During his administration the masses will break into open rebellion, the established form of government will be rent asunder, and for a year or more anarchy will prevail. When order shall be brought out of coaos, six republics will be formed, with capitals at the following cities: San Francisco, Denver, St. Louis, New Orleans, Wash ogton and Boston.

TROUSSEAU IDEAS.-It is no longer the fashion to measure the richness of a trousseau by the quantity it c ntains.

To have 12 dezen chemises or handkerchiefs in no way tempts modern women in society. Where can such a number of things be kept, in days when space in dwellings is measured by "bar-ley-corns?" Moreover, there is in such provision a sort of improvidence which does not fit in with the move-fents of fashion.

Formerly evolution was much slow-The bride became a grandmothe: before the form of her garments unde: went radical changes. But all this has long been upset. The form of the de-collet changes from year to year, so that the cut of the chemise has to be altered. The underwear has been completely flat for a period; then there must be a fullness, gathers, a different length.

One also has to reckon with changes which are due to nature. A slim, slight young girl of en becomes after marriage a stout young woman. Her underlinen can no longer be worn.

Today from six to a dozen chemises are considered quite sufficient. The rest of the trousseau is calculated on he same basis. The chemises must be elaborately ornamented. Plain linen is no longer worn even by maid servants. With wide valenciennesslightly gathered open-work predeminates. For fine linen open work and drawn threads are the ornaments most in favor, more even than embroidery.
